Sopra Steria and AMA Reinforce Strategic Partnership to Pioneer in AI-Driven Data Management

Rennes, France – March 7, 2024 - AMA CORPORATION PLC ("AMA") (ISIN GB00BNKGC5 - mneMO ALAMA), is proud to announce the reinforcement of its strategic partnership with Sopra Steria, a major Tech player in Europe, focused on revolutionizing data management with the power of Artificial Intelligence. This new strategic initiative is set to leverage the high-value data generated by AMA's XpertEye application and integrate it seamlessly into Sopra Steria's advanced AI solutions.

The synergy between Sopra Steria's expertise in IT solutions and AMA's know-how in assisted Reality (aR) promises to bring about significant improvements in operational efficiency. Integrating XpertEye's data into Sopra Steria's AI platforms aims to provide a comprehensive solution that addresses the complexities of modern data management, from enhancing decision-making processes to ensuring the utmost protection of sensitive information.

Additionally, Sopra Steria chose AMA's XpertEye for its adaptable deployment options, from SaaS to on-premises, and to showcase the revolutionary capabilities of 5G in boosting remote assistance through notable advancements in connectivity, reliability, and speed.

This collaboration not only signifies a leap forward in technological innovation but also underscores a shared dedication to advancing data management, ensuring that the digital transformation journey of companies is both safe and cutting-edge.

Yves Nicolas, Deputy Director in charge of the AI program at Sopra Steria Group, comments, "Strengthening our collaboration with AMA aligns perfectly with our commitment to pushing the boundaries of innovation, including in data management. We are convinced that together we can redefine the standards of operational excellence and open up new possibilities for companies navigating today's data-centric world."

Highlighting the importance of this partnership, Christian Guillemot, Co-founder and CEO of AMA, expresses his enthusiasm: "Collaborating with Sopra Steria enables us to propose a robust integration offer, thus allowing our customers to fully leverage the data produced by XpertEye. Capitalizing on our joint commitment to innovate and integrate Gen AI tools, this partnership is poised to transform how companies manage and optimize data in an increasingly digital world."
